THIS PLAN SHOWS THE FOCUS AREA
THAT WILL BE STUDIED
TO MINIMIZE ACID ROCK EXCAVATION

CURRENT ALIGNMENT

CSVT

An aerial photograph showing a street with houses and trees. A large, semi-transparent white box with black text is overlaid on the image, covering the lower half of the frame. The text reads "STONE BRIDGE DRIVE" in bold, sans-serif capital letters.

ACID ROCK FOCUS AREA BOUNDARY

An aerial photograph of a railway line curving through a hilly landscape. Two large white signs with black text are placed across the tracks. The sign on the left reads 'NORTHBOUND' and the sign on the right reads 'SOUTHBOUND', both with arrows pointing along the direction of the curve. The railway consists of two sets of parallel tracks. A red line is drawn across the image, starting from the bottom left and ending at the top right, intersecting the railway tracks. Several cyan-colored lines are also present, forming a network that intersects the red line and the railway tracks.

An aerial photograph of a residential street. A large, white, tilted rectangular overlay contains the text "ATTIG RD" in bold, black, sans-serif capital letters. The street name is oriented diagonally across the image. The background shows a grid of utility lines (power and telephone) running parallel to the street. In the lower-left foreground, there is a cluster of houses and trees.
