

ACID ROCK TREATMENTS

1. Minimize amount of acid bearing rock to be excavated and or exposed to air and water

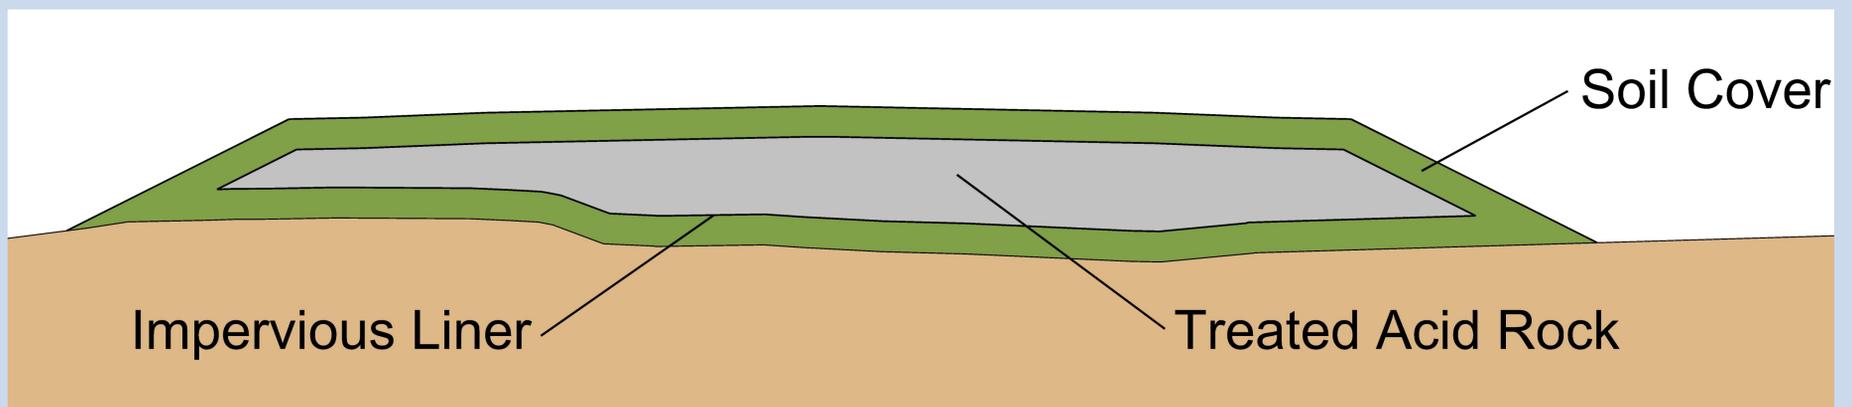

Deep Excavation

Shallow Excavation (Preferred)

2. Treat excavated acid rock material with lime and encapsulate (to prevent contact with air and water)

Typical section of treated acid rock with impervious liner and encapsulated.

3. Treat stormwater runoff from exposed rock slopes

Acid rock remediation from I-99 Project near State College, PA.